

A SURRENDER.

The Coal Creek Miners Give Up to Gen. Carnes.

Gov. Buchanan Asks For and Receives National Aid.

Thousands of Rounds of Ammunition Sent to Him—The Knoxville Iron Company Gives Up Its Contract Lease—The Militia Rule the Situation at Last.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—At Gov. Buchanan's telegraphic request, 600 stands of arms and 30,000 rounds of ammunition were sent him from here Friday morning. This is the quota to which Tennessee is entitled from the general government under the militia law of the United States.

At 12:30 Friday nothing further had been received from the seat of war in Tennessee, and no order had been received from the president to dispatch national troops to the aid of the authorities of that state.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 19.—Coal Creek is virtually in the hands of military authorities. More than 1,000 soldiers are quartered in town. Occasional shots are heard, but no regular engagement has been fought.

A cold, drenching rain was falling throughout east Tennessee Friday morning and late arrivals of troops and citizens at Coal Creek are in a very unpleasant condition. Few of them are supplied with overcoats and a great many have no blankets.

Gen. Anderson is still a prisoner in the hands of the miners. He positively refuses to surrender or treat with his captors. He is closely guarded. Brig. Gen. Carnes wires Superintendent Huger, of East Tennessee, that all the miners of Coal Creek have unconditionally surrendered to him, and Capt. Anderson will be delivered at 1 o'clock.

George Irish, a leader among the miners at Coal Creek, is in the city. He is supposed to have led the attack on the Briceville stockade a year ago. He says he advised the miners and their friends to let the convicts at Coal Creek alone. A meeting of a secret committee was held and he was given twenty-four hours to leave the country. He says he will never return to Coal Creek.

The Knoxville Iron Co. has thrown up the lease of the convicts, and telegraphed the warden to turn them over to the troops. If this is done it will be a tame ending to the crusade for law and order.

A mass meeting of citizens to protest against the humiliation of law is called for. The posse organized here and sent out Friday morning includes some of the best men in town. Editor Taum of the Tribune, and Gen. Williams, ex-candidate for congress, are among them. Maj. Carpenter and Col. Woolford invested Ft. Anderson without firing a shot. Gen. Carnes now occupies Coal Creek.

The miners are retreating with a small amount of firing by the rear guards. These facts are definite. More troops and volunteers have boarded a special train and are now en route.

In the battle between soldiers and miners, Private Waltham, of the Chicago rifles, of this city, and three miners, names unknown, were killed. Three miners are known to have been wounded. Waltham, the dead soldier was a clerk in the East Tennessee railroad office in this city and was 22 years of age.

When Gen. Carnes arrived at Coal Creek with his regiment Friday morning, the telegraph office and, in fact, the entire village, surrendered without opposition. The march was then taken up in the direction of Camp Anderson, a mile distant.

On the way the soldiers were attacked by a large body of miners, possibly 300 about noon. The fire was returned; and considerable shooting was done for about 10 minutes. The miners sent up a flag of truce and surrendered.

VENGEANCE.

A Cincinnati Hotel Proprietor Shot by a Chicago Coal Dealer—The Former Had Elopement With the Latter's Wife.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 20.—At 3 o'clock Friday afternoon J. F. Menne, proprietor of the Centennial hotel, on Fifth street, opposite the C. H. & D. depot, was shot down in his beer saloon by John J. Miller, a coal merchant of Chicago. Four shots were fired, three of which took effect in Menne's body. One struck his right arm, another his hand and the third just above his heart. Officer Tim Hanley heard the shots and burst into the room just as the victim fell. The murderer turned on him with the gun, but was quickly knocked down and taken to Central station. Menne was cared for by Drs. Cleveland and Brown, who pronounced his injuries fatal. Two years ago his wife left him, taking $5,000 of his money. She came to Cincinnati and began living with Menne. About two weeks ago Miller came to police headquarters with the story that the woman had poisoned his two children by a former wife. Miller himself was charged in Chicago with murdering his first wife, but was dismissed. At half-past three Menne was dying.

Feeling the Effects of the Strike. PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 20.—The serious effects of the railroad strikes at Buffalo are felt in this city among the big receivers of Chicago dressed beef. As a direct consequence the wholesale price jumped two cents per pound, with a very scanty supply at that. It is now altogether likely that for at least a week a very serious shortage will be felt, and further advances in the price are likely to occur. The cars loaded with beef shipped from Chicago on and before Monday last, which should now be here, are sidetracked at Buffalo and can not be moved.

A New Iron Hall. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 20.—Chief Justice Sweeney announces that he will go to Philadelphia and organize a new order of the Iron Hall and will exclude from membership all the Indians who rebelled against the old order.

UNCLE SAM'S STRENGTH.

He Could Raise an Army of Thirteen Million Men.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—An unusually interesting bulletin has just been issued by the superintendent of the census, exhibiting, among other things, the size of the militia population of the United States—that is the male population of the ages 18 to 44 inclusive.

The bulletin shows that there are 13,280,168 males in the United States between those ages, and it follows, therefore, that if we were driven to it, we could put into the field an army of over 13,000,000 men, except, of course, the shrinkage from disability and exemption. And then we would have 6,000,000 or more men over the age of 45 years, to attend to the business of the country, while this army of 13,000,000 men should be in the field.

It is interesting to note always that the increase in the number of militia men in the United States in the ten years from 1880 to 1890 is almost exactly three millions (2,998,929). Thus it appears that simply the increase in our militia population in ten years is enough to make three grand armies of a million men each.

Of the total militia strength of the country 11,805,964 is white, and 1,426,204 is colored. Of the white militia strength 9,986,066 is native, 2,217,898 is foreign born.

MORE LAND

Discovered By Ohio's Canal Commission—Its Value.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 20.—Another peculiar discovery has been made by the state canal commission. It is at the Lewistown reservoir, where three tracts of land are found to be unlawfully in possession of private individuals. One of these, occupied by a woman and valued at $600 slipped away from the state over thirty years ago. The occupant states that long ago a member of the state board of public works told her husband to put up a house and occupy the land. The other tracts reclaimed are valued at $850 and $1,250 respectively. There will be no contest over the property, as the occupants acknowledge the state's title, and at once made application for leases. A two hundred acre tract of land in Paulding county was sold by the commission Friday, the price being $3,600. This makes $10,300 the state has derived from the sale of Paulding county land, and eighty acres remain unsold.

CALLED BACK.

An Extraordinary Session of the Kentucky Legislature Ordered by Gov. Brown.

FRANKFORT, Aug. 20.—Gov. Brown Friday issued a proclamation convening the general assembly in extraordinary session August 23. There was great surprise here when it became known that the governor was preparing the proclamation calling for an extra session just ten days after its adjournment. The governor has been in consultation with the members of the revisionary commission and other prominent lawyers and judges since Tuesday, and has every reason to believe that he has taken the proper course, and the responsibility of so much unconstitutional legislation will be put where it really belongs, on the legislature.

MURDERER EVANS EXECUTED.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 20.—Chas. Evans, the murderer of Sheriff W. H. Cook, of St. Tammany parish, was hung at Covington Friday in the presence of 1,500 people. The law in Louisiana has for the past few years required the hanging of all criminals to be in private, with not over fifteen witnesses present. The crowd at Covington, many of whom had come miles to witness the hanging, became disappointed and disgusted when they found that they were being shut out from the hanging, and, attacking the wall around the jail, pulled it down and rushed on the scene, where they stood silent and passive.

The Situation at Coal Creek.

COAL CREEK, Tenn., Aug. 20.—The battle at Coal Creek is at an end. The soldiers are victorious for once in the mining troubles, and the state's honor has been upheld. The miners surrendered at 4:30 p. m. Friday. Gen. Anderson was restored to his command, and peace was declared. Friday night the town was quiet, and there is little doubt but that Gen. Carnes and Gen. Anderson can hold it without serious trouble.

One Hundred and Three.

ALLIANCE, O., Aug. 20.—A telegram was received here announcing the death of Mrs. Emily Forebush, one of the pioneers of this section of the state, at the home of her son, in Sheboygan, Wis. The deceased was a woman of wonderful vitality, she having reached the age of 103 years on the 9th of this month. She retained her senses and mental faculties to the last.

New Fifty-Dollar Notes.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—The government is now preparing the new fifty-dollar notes, pursuant to an act of congress of July 14, 1890. The notes will have a vignette of Gen. Sherman from a full face engraving. It is proposed to issue a bank-note souvenir in honor of the quadricentennial of the discovery of America. The one-dollar note will probably be chosen for the souvenir.
